

Incontinence Supplies as a State Plan Service

- Waiver amendments are still pending approval from CMS for the removal of incontinence supplies as a waiver service
- A process has been developed in MMIS to pay claims and report them to the home health line – April 1
- Physician's orders and medical necessity criteria have been developed and implemented on the waiver recipient population
- Medicaid bulletin to physicians has been prepared for mailing – April 1

Incontinence Supplies as a State Plan Service

- A process has been developed to allow persons not in a waiver to receive supplies – July 1 bulletin and beneficiary notification
- Fiscal impact is still being determined for FY14 budget for the new population of non-waiver recipients. Waiver recipients had expenditures of $8 million/year