

Waccamaw Community Hospital, located in Murrells Inlet was the first hospital to receive their Baby-Friendly USA designation. They received their designation in May.

- Bruce Bailey, CEO Georgetown Hospital System
- Pamela Maxwell, VP Patient Care Services at Waccamaw
- Cheryl Kilbourne, Georgetown Hospital System

Roper St. Francis Mount Pleasant Hospital, located in Mount Pleasant received their Baby-Friendly USA designation in July. Here to accept the award on their behalf is:

- Dianna Topjian, VP and Chief Nursing Officer
- Norma Jean Cole, Clinical Manager for Women's Services

Medical University of South Carolina (MUSC), located in Charleston received their Baby-Friendly USA designation in September. Here to accept the award on their behalf is:

- Dr. Sarah Taylor, MSCR, Neonatology
- Vicki Marsi, MBA, Administrator for Women's Care Services, MUSC
- Dr. Ganga Srinivas, MBBS, General Pediatrics, Medical Director, Level 1 Nursery, MUSC
- Molly Gros, BSN, RNC, IBCLC, Assistant Nurse Manager, Labor & Delivery/Antepartum
- Jeanne Barreira, MSN, APRN, CNM, IBCLC, Advanced Practice Lactation Consultant – Inpatient
- Karen Stephenson, MUSC
- Patricia Condon, MUSC

Georgetown Memorial Hospital, located in Georgetown received their Baby-Friendly USA designation in October. Here to accept the award on their behalf is:

- Bruce Bailey, CEO Georgetown Hospital System
- Ann Waters, RN MS MSN - VP of Operations & GMH Administrator
- Nira G. Daleda, RN BS, Clinical Director Women Services & 3 Parrish