Appointing an Authorized Representative

Would you like to allow someone to represent you on all matters related to your case?

You can give a trusted person or an organization permission to talk about your application with us, see your information, and act for you on matters related to your application, including getting information about your application and signing your application on your behalf. This person can also act for you on other matters, including reviews, appeals and managed care processes. This person is called an "authorized representative." The Medicaid eligibility worker can release any information regarding your application/review and status to your authorized representative. More than one person or organization can serve as your authorized representative.

You can appoint, withdraw or change an authorized representative at any time. If you ever need to change your authorized representative, contact Healthy Connections. If you are a legally appointed representative for someone on this application, you do not need to complete this section.
