Presentations Speakers and Breakout Leaders
Saturday, August 10, 2024
QTIP Welcome and Overview Ramkumar Jayagopalan, MD Shiann Bradley, MSHS	This presentation will provide an overview of SCDHHS' policy initiatives, with a focus on QTIP quality improvement initiatives, data updates and plans.
Telling our Story	Selected pediatric practices will share a 3-minute update about their practice and/or a recent quality improvement project.
Anxiety Workshop Discussion Kelli Scurry, LISW-CP Marlo Koger-Thomas, MPH	Group discussion describing the anxiety quality improvement workshop project focused on screening, community resources, and medication management. Workshop practices will share project AIM statements, QI techniques, data, and project results with feedback from other QTIP practices and topic experts.
Breakout Sessions - Saturday
Groups by Practice Size (3) Shiann Bradley, MSHS	Participants in this group will meet in smaller groups based on their practice size (small, medium, large) to discuss and share ideas and strategize challenges around office procedures and EMR use.
Birth Outcomes Initiatives Zeporia Tucker, MED, EDS, PAHM	Discussion on the South Carolina Birth Outcomes Initiative, established in 2011. It is a collaborative of SCDHHS, the South Carolina Department of Public Health, South Carolina Hospital Association, March of Dimes, BlueCross BlueShield of South Carolina (BCBSSC), and more than 100 stakeholders with the overall goal of improving maternal and infant health outcomes.
QIDA Application in Office Marlo Thomas-Koger, MPH	Discussion of how practices use QIDA data to plan their QI work and implementations for the year, along with guiding their next steps with tools such as PDSA cycles
HPV Work – Younger Ages – What Works? Ramkumar Jayagopalan, MD	Discussion of what works for initiating the HPV vaccine beginning at age 9. Why or why not?
CBT by Pediatric Medical Professionals: Help ASAP - The Overview (2) Kelli Scurry, LISW-CP	You spoke. We listened. ANY member of pediatric teams interested in understanding what Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (CBT) is, and how to be trained on its components over the next year is welcome. Your attendance will not commit you to anything, but it will help us gauge genuine interest among QTIP practices in learning evidence-based CBT components to teach your patients.
Maintaining Well-Being in Unwell Times Kelli Scurry, LISW-CP	You work in a well-documented high-stress environment. You also have your own life, people, and needs. Indulge in just a few minutes to honestly privately assess what you're doing and how you're doing. Strategies to bring more balance to your life just might be simpler than you think.

HPV in Younger Ages Dr. Debbie Greenhouse Palmetto Pediatrics Columbia	Dr. Greenhouse will discuss her work with HPV initiation at the age of 9 and how this is incorporated into the practice workflow.
Safe Sleep Deandra Clark, MD AnMed Health Children's Healthcare Center	How AnMed health system addresses safe sleep in their population and Fant Street Location
New QIDA Review – What Counts as a “Yes” Ramkumar Jayagopalan, MD Marlo Koger-Thomas, MPH	This presentation will provide an overview of the new Quality Improvement Data Aggregator (QIDA) questions that will be used for the upcoming 12 months for Quality Improvement data tracking.
QIDA In Action Gisselle Cintron, MOA Dr. Luke Edmondson, MD MUSC Moncks Corner	MUSC Moncks Corner will share how they practically apply QIDA data into their quality improvement efforts in the office.
How Does QTIP Fit in the Bureau of Quality? Kristine Hobbs	This presentation will provide an overview of how QTIP fits into the larger SCDHHS quality strategy and within the division of Community Initiatives.
Sunday – August 11
New QTIP topics Ramkumar Jayagopalan, MD	Overview of new topics for the 2024-2025 QTIP year: Newborns (0-36 months) and Asthma . Anticipatory guidance for the topics along with examples of QI activities to implement into the practice.
