QTIP Blog Sign-Up

- First, if you haven't already done so, get together with your practice team at our Learning Collaborative and complete a blog sign-up sheet (I will provide). Return the sheet to me prior to your departure.

QTIP Blog Sign-Up

I will set up your user account for the blog based on the information you provided in the week following the Learning Collaborative, and I will send you your username and default password via email, so be on the lookout!

QTIP Blog Access

Once you've received your username and password via email, navigate to the QTIP blog (https://msp.scdhhs.gov/chipraqtip). You will see the login screen below:
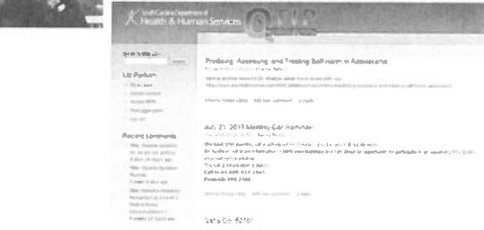

Enter your username and password in the required fields. Note that once you have successfully logged in for the first time that you may change your password from the default to a value that only you know.

QTIP Blog

Success! You have done it. Now that you are logged in, you should see the homepage for the blog. The layout is a typical blog interface, with the most recently posted entries at the top, along with their comments:
