Time	Title/Description		Presenter
8–9 a.m.	Arrival + Breakfast
9-9:30 a.m.		Welcome and Opening Remarks	Shiann Bradley, MSHS
9:30–9:35 a.m.	Break
Breakout Discussions (Please choose one room per time slot.) We encourage team members from the same practice to divide and conquer. Try out different sessions so you can share what you learned.
Session 1: 9:35-10:10 a.m.	Dorchester Meeting Room	Mindfulness for All In this session you'll explore the benefits, foundations and a plan to implement the practice of mindfulness into your daily life. We all have many things going on in our lives, but taking the time to pay attention with kindness and curiosity to ourselves is important to continue serving in our field and avoiding burnout.	Anita Khetpal, MD Kristine Hobbs, LMSW
	Charleston Meeting Room	Identifying Areas of Need for QI: How Failure Modes and Effects Analysis (FMEA) Can Help Your Practice Proactively Problem-Solve Using FMEAs can help your team conduct systematic and proactive analysis of your processes and where improvements may be essential. During this session learn how to apply this based on your own practice's needs.	Addison Lee
10:10–10:15 a.m.	Transition
Session 2: 10:15-10:50 a.m.	Dorchester Meeting Room	Resource Sharing and Q&A Join the expertise of Dr. Khetpal to share ideas and opportunities for providing the best clinical care to our patients with mental, emotional, and behavioral health needs. We will also share with each other resources and ideas we have for caring for these patients.	Anita Khetpal, MD Kristine Hobbs, LMSW
	Charleston Meeting Room	Cheat Sheets Aren't Cheating: Creating Reference Materials Helps Your Whole Team In this session we'll create “cheat sheets” to bring home to your practice and use right away. Think screening handout guides for child and adolescent well-care visits, process maps to guide your decision-making and checklists to ensure perfect procedure adherence.	Addison Lee
