

South Carolina Birth Outcomes Initiative Quality and Patient Safety Workgroup

Alliance for Innovation on Maternal Health (AIM) Webinar Series Why Equitable Care Matters to Quality and Patient Safety: Reflections from the Voices/Voces of Women Receiving OB Care in South Carolina

Wednesday, May 13, 2026
12-1 p.m.

Deborah Billings, PhD

Affiliate Faculty and Senior Research Associate
Institute for Families in Society
University of South Carolina

Join us for the webinar, Why Equitable Care Matters to Quality and Patient Safety: Reflections from the Voices/Voces of Women Receiving OB Care in South Carolina, as part of the South Carolina Birth Outcomes Initiatives' Quality and Patient Safety Workgroup AIM series.

Grounded in the experiences and recommendations of Black and Spanish-speaking immigrant women receiving OB care in South Carolina and using Medicaid to cover the costs of their care, this presentation will address the following:

- Equity from women's perspectives
- Relationship between equity and quality of care and care safety
- How to use the Voices/Voces learning modules in your setting to address equity

To participate in the webinar on Teams, scan the QR code.

You can also join by phone at (803) 454-9985.

Access code: 241 593 095

Questions?

Email SCBOI@scdhhs.gov.

