

Your Information. Your Rights. Our Responsibilities.

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

Personal Information Voluntarily Submitted to SCDHHS

If you choose to provide SCDHHS with personal information -- for example by completing an application for South Carolina's Medicaid program-- we may use that information to respond to your application and/or help us get you the information or services you requested. Submitting personal information such as that listed below is voluntary, however such information may be required to receive benefits.

No mobile numbers will be shared with third parties or affiliates for marketing or promotional purposes. All the above categories exclude text messaging originator opt-in data and consent; this information will not be shared with any third parties.

SCDHHS maintains information in our secure computer network used only by authorized personnel and in accordance with state and federal laws. Uses and disclosures of your information, which are listed in this notice, are dictated by state and federal laws. Your information may be retained indefinitely in accordance with federal and state law.

- Name, address
- Information on family members
- Date of birth, Social Security Number
- Income information, Federal Benefits or child support
- Financial information
- Rent, mortgage payments

Your Rights

You have the right to:

- Get a copy of your health and claims record
- Correct your health and claims record
- Request confidential communication
- Ask us to limit the information we share
- Get a list of those with whom we've shared your information
- Get a copy of this privacy notice
- Choose someone to act for you
- File a complaint if you believe your privacy rights have been violated

Your Choices

You have some choices in the way that we use and share information as we:

- Answer coverage questions from your family and friends
- Provide disaster relief
- Market our services and sell your information

Our Uses and Disclosures

We may use and share your information as we:

- Help manage the health care treatment you receive
- Run our organization
- Pay for your health services
- Help with public health and safety issues
- Do research
- Comply with the law

- Respond to organ and tissue donation requests
- Work with a medical examiner or funeral director
- Address workers' compensation, law enforcement and other government requests
- Respond to lawsuits and legal actions

South Carolina Department of Health and Human Services is the single state agency charged with the administration of the State Plan for Medical Assistance under Title XIX of the Social Security Act (Medicaid). The legal authority under which the agency administers the plan on a Statewide basis is: § 44-6-30, SC Code, 1976, as amended.

Your Rights

When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights. This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities to help you.

Get a copy of your health and claims records

- You can ask to see or get a copy of your health and claims records and other health information we have about you. Ask us how to do this.
- We will provide a copy or a summary of your health and claims records, usually within 30 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee.

Ask us to correct health and claims records

- You can ask us to correct your health and claims records if you think they are incorrect or incomplete. Ask us how to do this.
- We may say "no" to your request, but we'll tell you why in writing within 60 days.

Request confidential communications

- You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to sent mail to a different address.
- We will consider all reasonable request, and must say "yes" if you tell us you would be in danger if we do not.

Ask us to limit what we use or share

- You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment or our operations.
- We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say "no" if it would affect your care.

Get a list of those with whom we've shared information

- You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we've shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why.
- We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We'll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.

Get a copy of this privacy notice

- You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.

Choose someone to act for you

- If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.
- We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.

File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated

- You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting us and filing a written complaint with the Office of Civil Rights & Privacy, South Carolina Department of Health and Human Services (SCDHHS), P.O. Box 8206, Columbia, SC 29202-8206 or calling (888) 808-4238.
- You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office of Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696-6775, or visiting <https://www.hhs.gov/hipaa/filing-a-complaint/index.html>

- We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

Your Choices

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.

In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:

- Share information with your family, close friends or others involved in your care
- Share information in a disaster relief situation

If you are not able to tell us your preference, for example if you are unconscious, we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety.

In these cases, we never share your information unless you give us written permission:

- Marketing purposes
- Sale of your information

Handling of Substance Use Disorder (SUD) Information Under 42 CFR Part 2

Some health records about substance use treatment have extra protections under federal law. SCDHHS may receive this information when we process Medicaid claims, help coordinate your care, or run the Medicaid program. Here is what you need to know.

How We Use Your SUD Information

We may use your SUD information if you give us written permission. This lets us use it to:

- Help pay for your care
- Run the Medicaid program
- Work with your doctors or health plans

You can take back your permission at any time.

When We Can Share Without Permission

We only share your SUD information without permission when the law allows it, such as:

- A medical emergency
- A court order
- Required reports of child abuse
- Certain audits

Your Rights

You have the right to:

- Ask us to limit how we use or share your SUD information
- Ask for a list of times we shared it
- Take back your permission
- Be told if your information is involved in a privacy breach

How We Protect Your Information

We keep your SUD information safe by:

- Limiting who can see it
- Using secure systems
- Training our staff
- Following federal and state privacy laws

Our Uses and Disclosures

How do we typically use or share your health information?

We typically use or share your health information in the following ways.

Help manage the health care treatment you receive

- We can use your health information and share it with other professionals who are treating you.

Example: A doctor sends us information about your diagnosis and treatment plan so we can arrange additional services.

Run our organization

- We can use and share your information to run our organization and contact you when necessary,
- We are not allowed to use genetic information to decide whether we will give you coverage and the price of that coverage. This does not apply to long term care plans.

Example: We use health information about you to develop better services for you.

Pay for your health services

- We can use and disclose your health information as we pay for your health services.

Example: We share information about you with your dental plan to coordinate payment for your dental work.

Administer you plan

- We may disclose your health information to your health plan sponsor for plan administration.

Example: Your company contracts with us to provide a health plan, and we provide your company with certain statistics to explain the premiums we charge.

How else can we use or share your health information?

We are allowed or required to share your information in other ways – usually in ways that contribute to the public good, such as public health and research. We have to meet many conditions in the law before we can share your information for these purposes. For more information see:

www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/index.html.

Help with public health and safety issues

We can share health information about you for certain situations such as:

- Preventing disease
- Helping with product recalls
- Reporting adverse reactions to medications
- Reporting suspected abuse, neglect, or domestic violence
- Preventing or reducing a serious threat to anyone's health or safety

Do research

- We can use or share your information for health research.

Comply with the law

- We will share information about you if state or federal laws require it, including with the Department of Health and Human Services if it wants to see that we're complying with federal privacy law.

Respond to organ and tissue donation requests and work with a medical examiner or funeral director

- We can share health information about you with organ procurement organizations.
- We can share health information with a coroner, medical examiner or funeral director when an individual dies.

Address workers' compensation, law enforcement and other government requests

- We can use or share health information about you:
 - For workers' compensation claims
 - For law enforcement purposes or with a law enforcement official
 - With health oversight agencies for activities authorized by law
 - For special government functions such as military, national security and presidential protective services

Respond to lawsuits and legal actions

- We can share health information about you in response to a court or administrative order, or in response to a subpoena.

Our Responsibilities

- We are required by law to maintain the privacy and security of your protected health information.
- We will let you know promptly if a breach occurs that may have compromised the privacy or security of your information.
- We must follow the duties and privacy practices described in this notice and give you a copy of it.
- We will not use or share your information other than as described here unless you tell us we can in writing. If you tell us we can, you may change your mind at any time. Let us know in writing if you change your mind.

For more information see: www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/noticepp.html.

Changes to the Terms of this Notice

We can change the terms of this notice, and the changes will apply to all information we have about you. The new notice will be available upon request by calling our Member Call Center at (888) 549-0820 [TTY/TDD: (888) 842-3620], in each county eligibility office and on www.scdhhs.gov.

Other Instructions for Notice

- Effective Date: Feb. 16, 2026
- To reach the SCDHHS Privacy Official, please call (888) 808-4238, email civilrights@scdhhs.gov or send mail to the Privacy Official, Office of Civil Rights & Privacy, SCDHHS, P.O. Box 8206, Columbia, SC 29202-8206.
- South Carolina state law does not allow us to release information about a beneficiary unless that information is necessary for the administration of the state plan.