Entering into its tenth year, the Jackson Teen Center has served over 2,600 members with over 250 coming daily (a 15% increase from last year), making it one of the larger teen center programs in the Southeast. Open to all KCSD youth ages 12-17, Monday through Friday, from 2:30-6:30, members participate in activities focusing on character building, teamwork, and leadership, all designed to empower youth. Programs from the Boys & Girls Clubs of America, such as CareerLaunch, Money Matters and Keystone focus on career exploration, financial literacy and community service. Education is our main focus; we set aside time each day to complete homework, and volunteers provide tutoring as needed. Members also participate in college and career research and placement, Make It A Conversation, flag football, a recording studio, a game room/lounge, and a much more.

- 98% are on track to complete high school on time and plan to continue their education
