Please explain how these funds will be used to provide a public benefit:

Funds will be used to provide treatment services in varied and creative ways. Medically Assisted Treatment, case management and education will be brought to those in various rural communities who are experiencing complications with Opioid Abuse and Dependence and the comorbidities that are often caused or enhanced by substance abuse. Partnering with the Faith Base community, our focus is to provide services to the most vulnerable, underinsured or not insured in hopes of reducing overdose and accidental death. Reaching out to the community as a whole and families of those who are dependent on opioids giving them educational tools to guide them to potentially save the life of a loved one or a member of their community.
